Seed fund of funds

- The Company intends to invest £75 million into Europe’s top seed funds over a five-year period. £17 million to date.

- Announced investments in 7 of Europe’s leading seed fund platforms including Episode 1, Seedcamp, Icebreaker, Join Capital. Further investments across Europe, including seed funds in Cambridge, Ireland and London.

- Draper Esprit is an investor in crowdfunding companies, Crowdcube and Seedrs, also earlier stage investors.

- By closely aligning Draper Esprit with the seed fund ecosystem, the Company is able to provide growth capital and unlock the strong performance of seed funds.

- This strategy also enables us to stay close to earlier stage businesses, backing the winners later in their growth.
Secondary portfolio acquisition – Seedcamp Fund I and II

- Acquired Seedcamp Funds I and II for £17.9 million (£20 million).

- Acquired meaningful minority stakes in high profile growing technology companies including Transferwise, a leading UK based fintech business.

- The portfolio also includes Codacy, Edited, Erply, Fishbrain, Basekit, Codility, Winnow, Codeship, and Try.com.

- Follows previous secondary acquisitions prior to IPO including: 3i, Prelude, Top technology, Cazenove.

Companies are staying private for longer.

Technology companies worth more than $1 billion... have fewer reasons to go public than they did in the past.

The average technology company worth more than $10 billion went public within four years in 1999. Now the average has more than doubled.

Global VC market now worth ~$127bn.

Predominantly accessible only to Limited Partnerships.

European Venture Capital currently an industry worth $15bn. KPMG 2017

European Venture Capital opportunity compares to the US industry in the 1990s

Our research shows that Europe is following a very similar path to the US in the 1990s. 2010’s European technology growth is almost identical to that of the US in 1990.

Europe is building a sustainable VC industry.
European venture capital market

- USA is a mature $40bn VC market – growth is in $30bn “pre-IPO”

- Only 43% of European start-ups now go on to do a growth round, compared to 85% of start-ups in the US.

- Europe 500 - 1,000 growth deals behind but catching up: UK 25% of this so 250-500 growth companies @ $20m = $5bn (£3bn) UK gap
